

2023 IEEE Communication Theory Workshop

2-5 July 2023 – Hualien, Taiwan

CALL FOR POSTERS

The 2023 IEEE Communication Theory Workshop (CTW) will take place in Hualien, Taiwan, from July 2 to 5, 2023.

The continued success of this workshop lies in its informal and highly interactive atmosphere, in contrast to more formal conferences. As always, the workshop will be single track with technical sessions, plenary speakers, panel discussions, and a hot-topics submitted poster session. The technical sessions will consist of invited lectures given by leaders in both academia and industry.

Poster Submission

The organizing committee of CTW is soliciting contributions for the poster session devoted to recent results in the general area of communication theory. We especially encourage students and junior researchers to participate. There will be no published proceedings.

Extended abstracts (2 pages maximum, double column, IEEE style file) for the poster session should be submitted with CTW 2023 in the subject to Derrick Wing Kwan Ng (w.k.ng@unsw.edu.au) and Jemin Lee (jemin.lee@skku.edu).

Important Dates
